

Anthony Lopergalo

July 1, 1924 - November 21, 2019

Anthony “Tony” Lopergalo was an adoring husband survived by his wife Marie Lopergalo of 73 years. With a smile that could light up a room Tony was a proud father to beloved Ronnie and Valerie and daughter-in-law Kathy and son-in-law Bob. A grandfather to Dana Lopergalo, Anthony Lopergalo, beloved Brooke Schilling and her husband Matt, Alex Fahie, Joseph Lopergalo and his wife Brittany, and Nicholas Lopergalo. His great grandchildren Michael Lopergalo, Chase Sukow, and Sophia Schilling will never forget him. Born and raised in Brooklyn New York he is the beloved son to Michael and Elizabeth and brother to Albert, Frank, Dorothy and Elizabeth. Tony served four years and six months in the army and was honored to be a World War II veteran serving overseas. Three months upon his tour ending he married his bride and together they honeymooned in the Catskills and Atlantic City. Shortly after marrying they moved to Bayshore New York to start a family. To the very end, Tony and Marie’s love was and forever will be a true testament to the institution of marriage. Through the years Tony worked as a truck driver delivering fruits and vegetables and he was also a tile and paint laborer. His most favorite past times include enjoying Marie’s amazing cooking, betting the horses, playing cards at the clubhouse or slots at the casinos, and he loved his red wine and Italian cigars. He completely enjoyed his time with his grand and great grandchildren; he is the reason why the holidays were so memorable. During the good times and the most difficult of times he always let old and new friends in. Until his last breath Marie was his everything and to his family and friends, Tony was a happy and fun ray of light who will be missed by all and never forgotten.
