

Catherine Pavacic

August 28, 1925 - October 8, 2019

“The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen, nor touched, but are felt in the heart.” -Helen Keller

Catherine "Katie" Pavacic, 94, of Central Islip, passed away peacefully on October 8, 2019.

Catherine was born August 28, 1925, in Manhattan, New York, to Kate and John Pavacic. She was known to her family as Katie. She leaves behind her three sons: John, James and Jeff. She was adored by her many loving nieces, nephews and grand/great grand children.

Katie was a remarkable woman, dedicated mother and grandmother first and foremost. She raised a wonderful family of people who are just as kind, generous and loving as she was. She especially loved her role as Nana. She treasured her children/grandchildren and embraced every moment with them. She had a personality and always made people around her laugh.

Katie enjoyed reading mystery novels, watching Jeopardy, Golden Girls, spending time her time with Sunshine and trying her luck at scratch off tickets. She was an excellent cook and loved Bingo, going to the casinos, and eating anything sweet (preferably ice cream).

She was adored and will be greatly missed by all.
