

Chris C. Theodore

March 3, 1943 - January 5, 2019

Christ Constantine Theodore, 75, fell asleep in the Lord on Saturday, January 5, 2019. He is survived by his brother Anthony, his son Dean Theodore and daughter-in-law, Patricia, his daughter Dr. Lea Athena Theodore, his former wife Maria Papaleontiou Theodore, as well as many cousins. Chris is preceded in death by his beloved parents, Reverend Father Constantine G. Theodore and Presvytera Athena Scaltsas Theodore, as well as his grandparents and many aunts and uncles.

Chris was dedicated to his membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), having valiantly served his country during the Vietnam Era. Notably, he served as the former Commander of the VFW Post 5335 and was the former Post Chaplain for the American Legion Post 164. For those who knew Chris well, he was truly a gentle soul. He especially loved his family, friends, and colleagues, and collectively we hope our much-loved Chris rests in eternal peace and his memory be eternal.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the VFW (www.vfw.org), the American Legion (www.legion.or), or to the American Cancer Society (www.cancer.org).

Comments

“ The volunteers and guests of The Patchogue Neighbor's Soup Kitchens send their sincere condolences to the Family of Mr. Theodore. His family has been very generous supporters of our soup kitchens and have made the lives of our guests more complete by their caring and sharing. May he rest in Peace.
