“ Cindots, you were so special to everyone. Always happy and caring for others. You went through this life with grace and dignity, a lesson for us to emulate. Ever surrounded by a loving family and stalwart friends you have enriched all who were fortunate to cross your path. You are in God's loving care. In the words of Humphrey Bogart from the movie, Casablanca, "Here's looking at you kid." Until we meet again, all our eternal love 📌👉📌

“ So many wonderful things to say about you don't know where to begin. Your life has taught me to be a better person, to never complain, to remember that there are people who are struggling every day just to stay alive . You went through so much and never stopped smiling. Never stopped believing and never stopped fighting to stay alive. Your courage, faith and desire to live should be a lesson to us all. Your smile and Kind Words will never be forgotten. For now lay in the fields of Devil Dogs that have been promised to Us and Until We Meet Again Remember that you were Loved By Many . Thank You to all of those people that let you know your life truly mattered AND THANK YOU ESPECIALLY TO TITI NILDA WHO NEVER NEVER LEFT YOUR SIDE ESPECIALLY IN YOUR DARKEST MOMENTS XOXOXO

“ Cindy I will never forget all the vacations i spent with you in Florida. You & titi always made it so that i had fun spending my lazy days by the pool. We got to go out with John to Red Lobster, we did movies & we even met Spanky for the first time on one of those vacations. Even though i hadn't been there in a while we always talked on the phone. Don't know how I'm going manage that you're not there anymore. Even when we didn't talk i always knew you were there. Love you Cindy you don't know how broken my heart is. Until i see you again i know you'll be watching from up above. Love you forever sister.

PS I attached your favorite people.

“ It is so sad to say goodbye to Cindy, we've been friends since we were teenagers. We had so much fun together, we used to hangout in her basement playing record's and finding any reason to have a party. When I went into the Army we wrote letters back and forth to each other, she would let me know how everything was back on 42 street and I would let her know how I was doing down in fort Polk Ia, she made me feel like I was still hanging out with everyone on the block. When I got out of the Army we picked up where we left off we would go out to the movies go out to eat and spend time with our friends. Cindy loved Disney World and I made my first trip there with Cindy and Nadia and we would go to Atlantic City with Alice and Glenn. Cindy was a great cook sometimes she would let me help her in the kitchen one time she was making sausage and peppers and she put me in charge of cutting the peppers so I did and I would put one slice in the pot and ate one for myself finally she threw me out of the kitchen or else there would be no peppers left. We loved watching old movies on TCM and there were so many that I had never seen because I was always working so many hours but now that I'm retired I've seen some that I never seen before and I would call Cindy right away to tell her. Cindy loved her family and they loved her especially the Kids she adored them, she would always talk about them and how they were growing up and then got married and now have children of their own she was so proud of them. Cindy went through so much physically but she never complained, she was tough and no matter how many obstacles were put in her way she just kept on going, if it was me I would be crying like a baby but not Cindy there's no way she would have done that. Cindy I'm going to miss you and like you said when I'm watching an old movie on TCM I'm going to be thinking about you, and when I see an old movie that I've never seen before I'm still going to tell you about it. Good bye Cindy I love you “ Sending my thoughts and prayers to Cindy's family. I understand your pain. I understand how it feels to miss someone you love. My deepest condolences to you.

I know Cindy for so many years. When think back I remember trips to Atlantic City, the movies, dinners, family gatherings and block parties. I remember one of Cindy's favorite things to say "Nice". We would joke around and play pranks on one another and Cindy would say "Nice" sarcastically because it was her way of saying not so "Nice".

She had a great sense of humor and will be missed. My mom and Uncle who also knew Cindy well and they both recently received their wings as well, so although Cindy will be the new kid on the block she has some dear friends with her.

Cindy you make sure you let everyone know who the boss is up there. The Boss Lady has arrived, may you rest in peace.

*Love Always,
Alice Bullard, Plant City FL*
