

Lisa Marie Nazario

July 11, 1969 - November 26, 2017

Nazario, Lisa M. of Shirley passed away on November 26, 2017. Beloved wife of the late Steven. Loving mother of Ashley and Steven. Cherished grandmother of Juliana. Caring sister of Christopher, Joy and Kim. Adored aunt to Krystal and Jonathan. She is survived by many friends and family who will remember her as a vibrant and funny woman with so much love to give.

Despite her age, she had lived many many life times; through tragic loss and also, an amazing birth. She always had so much to give and so much love in her heart that she did not go unnoticed. You could fall in love once you saw her smile or heard her laugh. She saw the good in people when no one else could. She would do anything she could to help someone.

We will remember her for the times we had with her happy and healthy. We are sorry for her suffering but understand that God answers prayers the best way. We told you it was okay to go and knew you listened. Until the very end you made your own choice. We are so blessed to have been able to call you mom, grandma, sister, or Lee. We will take care of eachother and that's a promise.

We know you are already looking down on us. We can see you in everything good in this world.

We love you Mom. We always have and we always will. Tell Dad we said hi.

“ I loved you from the start. You were an amazing sister. You shared everything you had to help others in need. You had done so much for me and I'm so grateful to have had a sister like you . Life had brought on itself and somethings weren't so easy to let go. You are loved and thought of every minute of every Day. I miss you so much Lee. You made me laugh and also cry. I wish I could of done so much more for you. You will never leave my heart and mind. We've done so much together with family and friends. You are an inspiration to me believe it or not. This has been a real eye opener for me n I thank you for being my sister. I will never forget us! Xoxoxo until we meet again.

“ When I first met Lisa she and I quickly grew to become great friends. I loved her "laugh" and her smile was everything. She was a kind soul and she would help anyone at any given time. We in our younger years spent so much time together. We were there for one and other in good times and bad. At some point in life we grew apart only because life got busy. The night I went to go visit her in the hospital I was chocking back tears and I said hi to her as she lay in her bed. I asked her Ling Ling do you know who I am and she said of course I do your Dawn with a giant smile on her face. She says to me, I thought you were mad at me. And it was then I cried a little and kissed her forehead and told her no I was never mad at you. (I honestly didn't know why she thought that) her smile lit up the room for me at that very moment. My dear friend how could I let all that time pass and not attempted to reach out for you. I know your in heaven, find my boys and kiss them for me and take care of them until I get there. And I will do my best to take care of your children and be there for them while I'm here. I LOVE YOU LING LING REST IN PEACE.
