“ To the family; I am deeply sorry for your loss. You all were the focus of her thoughts, love prayers & purpose in life. She might have been small in stature, but was a giant in strength of character - surmounting life's challenges with grace. We were fortunate to know & have her in our lives to experience her sense of humor, joy, faithful friendship, honesty & caring ways.

I will miss you my friend - shopping, laughing, sharing heartaches, being my legs when they failed me & me being able to be your eyes when needed. God called you home in a quiet manner - the way you lived - I'm sure you were praying at that time, as was your routine & He greeted you with open arms to a new life.

I can't say goodbye - but will say so long - I will see you again when The Father calls me.

I love you - Vivian
