“ Roy, my dear friend... we had so many, many fun memories throughout the years. You will be so greatly missed. You were a true, true friend. God broke the mold after he made Roy. One-of-a-kind, Roy was ALWAYS kind, generous, honest, loyal, and the funniest friend I have ever had. He was a great father to his children and husband to his wife, he loved his family so much. He loved his community and his friends with enthusiasm and it showed by his actions of support out of love and goodness in his heart. I am so sad and heartbroken over this loss to all of us. We were so fortunate to know him and to have had him in our lives. He leaves us with many memories, laughs and smiles. But most of all, he leaves us with the inspiration to be good and kind to one another, to encourage and support one another as he did for us. Heaven gained an angel like no other. Rest in Peace, my sweet friend. You will remain in our hearts forever and ever. I will never forget you.
