“ I met Rudy a few years ago when i went over Steve's house. I was in awe by the hockey memorabilia collection he and Steve had. We had some great conversations. He was a joy to be around and I enjoyed the conversations about Sports we had together,

“ I met Rudy shortly after MaryAnne did. She was so excited to introduce me to him. I just remember him pulling up in his little sports car and just so happy and friendly. He was so enamored with his new found love and family. I believe he took his new responsibility as a husband and stepdad quite seriously. It was a joy to see what a gentleman MaryAnne married. Once the family grew and his wonderful son was born, he was oh so proud. Although life has changed the frequency of seeing my friends, I am deeply saddened to hear of the passing of a man who truly was a wonderful love and provider of his family. God bless you all!

“ I met Rudy over 20 years ago when I became friends with his wife MaryAnne. It was clear from the outset that not only would Rudy and his family be dear dear friends, they became extended family. I spent many, if not most, weekends at their house and I will miss most sitting at the breakfast table on Sunday mornings listening to Rudy talk about hockey games, baseball games, reading the scores and anything remotely possible having to do with sports. He used to laugh at me when I said “I wouldn't know one end of a football from another“. Rudy was my Holiday Buddy, and over time 'Buddy' became my nickname for him. When the holidays rolled around he would get so excited about planning and shopping. One of the favorite things was putting up the tree on Thanksgiving weekend. Over the years we made it an annual tradition. He would always tell stories about his mom's Christmas ornaments, which he took great pride and love in placing them in just the right place on the tree. You will be sorely missed Rudy! Your kindness and generosity were beyond compare. Buddy, now you have the biggest Christmas tree in the world to decorate! Godspeed and rest in peace. With love, Joyce
