

Sharon L. Cartwright

October 17, 1947 - December 29, 2020

No obituary found for this tribute.

Cemetery Details

Oakwood Cemetery

3 Moffitt Blvd
Bay Shore, NY 11706

Previous Events

Visitation

JAN 4. 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM (ET)

Robertaccio Funeral Home - Patchogue
85 Medford Avenue
Patchogue, NY 11772
office@robertaccio.com

Visitation

JAN 4. 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM (ET)

Robertaccio Funeral Home - Patchogue
85 Medford Avenue
Patchogue, NY 11772
office@robertaccio.com

Religious Service

JAN 4. 7:30 PM (ET)

Robertaccio Funeral Home - Patchogue
85 Medford Avenue
Patchogue, NY 11772
office@robertaccio.com

Tribute Wall

“ 40 files added to the album LifeTributes ”

Robertaccio Funeral Home, Inc. - January 04, 2021 at 03:11 PM

“ Sharon became part of my life as a child. She was our babysitter for all the years of my childhood. It was through Sharon I met my childhood best friend Eddie and his whole family.

Sharon was my moms best friend and my moms "go to" person. Life's journey has taken us in different directions but not far from heart and memory. I often wondered what and where has Sharon's journey taken her. I had asked about Sharon over the years and through Eddie I learned she had some health issues, but was for the most part, ok. I am thankful that Eddie reached out to me about Sharon's passing.

Since learning of her passing, many things have gone through my mind. Like I wondered how many people heard the phrase " you little bch" Sharon use to say that all the time. Sometimes in a way that made you know she was mad. Other times she would say it in a humorous way. I remember once when she lived on Harper St. in Canaan Lake, I did something that made her put me in the bad girl corner. Right behind her chair so she knew I was there. When she allowed me to come out of that corner she noticed the scribbling on her wall with crayons. "YOU LITTLE BCH" she yelled. (yep she's mad)

There was the time Sharon lived in a house right off RT. 112 . I was in early elementary school and I came home from school one day to find my baby sister had messed up my room. I decided I was running away. I got the biggest box to take all my worldly possessions in and I called a cab. I took my baby sister with me and we ran away to Sharon's house. Someone called her to look out for us because we were on our way and we couldn't lift the box we took with all our stuff. Sharon was waiting for us and let us "move in" with her (until my mother came to get us that night.) Sharon would baby sit my brother, sister & me all the time taking us where ever she needed to go along with her Pudggy.. "Pudggy was just like another brother because we were there so much. I know as a young man, Lou is preferred over Pudggy but to Sharon he will always be her little "pudggy" Sharon always wanted a daughter but through out my childhood, that never happened.

When my mom had to work and I knew we were going to Sharon's I just knew that by the end of the day I could get a dish of Sharon's spanish rice She always made the best rice & beans or pork & rice. And she always seemed to be ironing. Around 1980-81 Sharon and I both worked at Blue Point Laundry and shortly before graduating HS in 1981, Sharon announced she was pregnant. I moved to Germany after graduation so I wasn't around when she had her baby, but I learned she finally got her little girl. When I returned from Germany I only seen Sharon a few times while my mom would get her hair done I met her little girl Maddy and at present day has become a pretty young woman and mother that I am sure made Sharon proud.. Sadly, the last time I visited with Sharon was at Eric's funeral. So many people have been blessed with the friendship and influences that Sharon embraced other with, she will be missed but definately not forgotten. So to Lou and Maddy and the rest of Sharon's family you have my deepest condolences. What is even sader is due to covid-19 , so many will grieve with you from a distance, but will be next to you in heart & thoughts.

Wishing you peace and comfort at this difficult time,

Becky Dix

REBECCA DIX - January 02, 2021 at 04:30 AM

B(

“ BECKY DIX-SWENSON (IOWA) purchased the Arrive in Style for the family of Sharon L. Cartwright.

BECKY DIX-SWENSON (IOWA) - January 01, 2021 at 03:48 PM